

What is an average Friday night for you?

What is your #1 sin struggle?

Ever downed a beer?

What's the first thing you notice about the opposite sex?

What do you and your parents argue about the most?

Ever been offered drugs?

Ever accepted the offer?

Ever cussed people out in your head?

Are you in competition or companionship with your friends?

What is most important to you in life?

Do your life actions reflect the answer above?

What would you say is the biggest struggle for teens today?

Do you think you need to be sexually active to be cool?

Would you be humiliated if your sins became public?

Why?

Do you find it hard to trust people?

Ever felt guilty about a weekend activity?

What activity?

Ever found yourself verbally ripping apart someone else

What do you see in the mirror?

Do you like what you see?

Ever been caught in a lie?

Is there such a thing as Christian peer pressure?

Which commandment do you find yourself breaking most often?

Ever been undercharged for something you bought?

Did you go back and pay the difference?

When you look at the opposite sex, do you see a person or a body?

Is there a difference between those two?

What is the message of the music you listen to?

Do you find racial jokes funny?

Ever been on the receiving end of a rumor?

Ever started a rumor to get revenge?

Sexually, in your opinion, how far is too far

What is your answer based on?

Would you allow someone to scan your computer's hard drive?

Ever pray about your sins?

Ever get an answer to those prayers?

Do you find it difficult to stay away from certain sins?

How important is image to the average teen?

Do you catch yourself identifying sin and then still do it?

Does it occur to you that Jesus walks beside you each day?

Would your social life and spiritual life change if He was physically with you each day?

Ever wish there was someone who is struggling with the same thing you are so you don't feel so alone?

What do you worship in life?

Why did you answer as you did?

What breaks your heart?

Ever experienced sexual peer pressure?

Have questions about Jesus' stance on things like sex, drinking, boundaries, drugs, idolatry, pornography?

Did you know that the easiest way for sin to kill you is for you to keep it a secret?

Thanks for taking the time to fill this out. The reason behind these questions is coming soon!